SLPA TO CONTINUE PORT OPERATIONS AND SERVICES
DURING THE UPCOMING HOLIDAYS

Sri Lanka Ports Authority wishes to inform our customers that the Port of Colombo and other ports in the country will continue to operate during the period which the government has declared as holidays to control Covid-19 disease. The Sri Lanka Ports Authority (SLPA) has always strived to ensure the smooth operations and services of the Ports during every difficult period to maintain the supply chain that is vital to the livelihood of the country.

Accordingly, the SLPA, as well as the private terminal operators at the Port of Colombo, are determined to carry out all operations and services as usual, including navigation, cargo handling and terminal operations.

Please note that all the facilities required to make online payments for the operations and services of the SLPA are now available to provide a more convenient and expeditious service to our customers (for more details please visit our official website at www.slpa.lk). Meanwhile, relevant payments can also be made through banks if required.

However, in case if there is any difficulty faced by the customers in obtaining the services of Jaya Container Terminal (JCT) and East Container Terminal (ECT) and/or the Logistics Division at the Port of Colombo and in Peliyagoda managed by the SLPA is advised to contact the respective duty officers at the following telephone numbers.

JCT Duty Officer - 071 4816898 or 0718688362

ECT Duty - 071 5330227

Logistics Duty Officer - 071 8688361 or 071 8531859
